Introduction

Need Some Extra Coin? Try My Fast Money Methods...

These are the fastest, easiest ways to make some extra cash with your computer and smartphone.

Hey, I get it. Sometimes you just need a way to make some extra cash.

We've all been there. Maybe you need to pay a bill.

Maybe you have an unforeseen expense. Perhaps you're trying to save up an emergency fund for a little peace of mind.

Heck, maybe you just run a little short every month like most people these days! No matter what your 'cash-crunch' circumstance is, this will help.

© 2021, 2022 by JDD Publishing Co.

Now you can easily turn your spare time into cold, hard cash.

These 'side-income' methods work, and they're all legit and above-board. Much of it is actually fun, and you can do it whenever you have spare time.

Hey, think of all the spare time you waste right now watching TV, playing with your phone, reading news and on social media.

Why not turn that into money?

These are the strategies that work right now. They are methods absolutely anyone can use, including you.

They don't require you to start a business or anything like that.

They're just the best, legit “side-income” methods absolutely anyone can use from their computer or smartphone!

How much can you make?

It all depends on how many of the methods you use and how often you use them.

Some of the methods can generate $25-100 a month. Others much more than that.

In fact, many people have used some of these methods to earn $1,000's per month.

You don't need a website, an email list or any experience. All you need is a computer or a smart phone.

Try one or two from each section, see which ones work best for you, then do them on a regular basis.

Website Testing

Did you know that you can get paid to simply visit websites, surf around and share your experience?

Yes, many people earn easy money doing this every day.

To become a website tester, you simply sign up at one of the reputable website testing sites and they'll tell you exactly what you need to do to start making money.

Some companies require you to install screen-recording software, which will enable your activity to be recorded. You then share your experience as you visit the pages and complete the tasks required with each test.

In a nutshell, your job is to find problems at websites so the owners can make sure their websites are easy to navigate and work properly.

© 2021, 2022 by JDD Publishing Co.

Website owners are happy to pay to find out if their visitors can find the content they are looking for and add products to their cart.

In this section you will find the top two website testing companies where you can get paid to test sites...

© 2021, 2022 by JDD Publishing Co.

UserLytics

UserLytics is a leading testing service that pays testers to check out the usability of apps and websites.

You simply sign up at their website or download the app onto your smartphone to get started. Once you sign up, you can test from home, on your own time, whenever you are free.

Your work will consist of completing a series of tasks and instructions, while interacting with web sites or mobile apps, or viewing video commercials.

© 2021, 2022 by JDD Publishing Co.

You then provide your feedback and suggestions, sharing your thoughts, emotions, criticisms, and suggestions while answering questions.

You will be paid $5, $10, $15, $20, even up to $90 for your feedback.

UserLytics pays you via Paypal once your test results have been approved.

To get started with UserLytics, register here by completing the short form and joining their global community of user testers.

Once accepted, you can interact with your computer or mobile app on your smartphone or tablet.

© 2021, 2022 by JDD Publishing Co.

UserTesting.com

Usertesting.com is another place where you can earn money testing apps and websites.

UserTesting pays by the test, which usually takes 15-20 minutes to complete.

UserTesting pays you to visit websites or apps, complete a set of tasks, and speak your thoughts aloud. You'll get $10 via PayPal for every 20-minute video you complete.

Most people will get 2-4 tests per week so that's $20-$40 a week for about an hour of work.

And here's a tip to earn even more... keep a browser with a tab for the UserTesting.com site running whenever you're near it. That's because many of the tests you would qualify for are sometimes gone within minutes of being offered. Naturally, the more you're willing or able to complete, the more you'll earn.

To get started with UserTesting.com, sign up here.

Once accepted, you can start visiting sites and apps, sharing your thoughts and getting paid!

Action Plan...

OK, now you have two great places where you can earn easy money simply by testing websites and apps.

Why not try out these resources right now. Open each website and sign up as a tester. Then decide on one or both to work with regularly.

Hey, you're surfing around on the web anyway, why not get paid for it!

Sell Stuff by Smartphone
(Or Buy and Sell Stuff for Profit)

The easiest way to make some fast money either online or off, is to sell stuff. And smartphones have made it so simple to sell stuff fast, it's ridiculous. I'm talking seconds to post an item, and results can be same-day in many cases.

Usually, you can simply sell stuff you already have. You may be surprised at how much stuff you consider useless or junk, that other people will pay good money for.

I've used this method over and over to not only make fast cash but to get rid of stuff that's taking up space. Years ago I made the commitment to sell something whenever I bought something new. It's a great strategy to keep things from accumulating and keeping open, welcoming spaces in your home.

© 2021, 2022 by JDD Publishing Co.

If you think you don't have anything of value to sell, think again. I've sold some crazy stuff over the years including an old used hot water heater when I upgraded to a money-saving hybrid model. (I got $100 bucks for it!)

And remember, to make fast money selling stuff, you don't have to have any stuff at all. You can simply visit local yard sales, estate sales and even ReStores that sell stuff cheap.

Once you get the hang of knowing what sells and for how much, you can turn an easy profit anytime you want.

OK, so here are the best ways to sell stuff online and offline. I'll assume you already know about Craigslist and Ebay, which can work well in some instances. So I won't go into how to sell on those platforms.

Instead, I'll share some rapidly growing platforms that are built for *smartphon*e simplicity. You can use them all on your computer as well, but once you try them on your smartphone you'll truly understand just how fast and easy they make selling. It's snap and post simple – just so outrageously easy to do.

Take this first one for example...

© 2021, 2022 by JDD Publishing Co.

Swappa

Swappa is a user-to-user marketplace for buying and selling new and gently used technology. It's is my favorite way to sell my used tech stuff, including phones and computers.

The screenshot above shows the Swappa website, but most of their users (including me!) use only the smartphone app. (It's so simple!)

More and more people are using Swappa instead of Craigslist nowadays, probably due to all the spam and scammers that you can be subject to when selling on Craigslist.

What's great about Swappa is that buyers and sellers connect directly, and it is far safer than most other marketplaces for used electronics. That's because all devices must be fully functional to be sold or listed on Swappa, and they have a customer service team that ensures quality of all products.

Selling on Swappa is really simple, especially with their smartphone app. Here's a detailed explanation of how to get your first listing up.

If you have an old smartphone, laptop, tablet or video game sitting around collecting dust, then why not turn them into cash today with Swappa!

© 2021, 2022 by JDD Publishing Co.

OfferUp

Similar to Swappa, OfferUp allows you to buy and sell any item you can imagine! But it's not limited to electronics, you can sell virtually anything you want!

The screenshot above shows the OfferUp website, but most of their users (including me!) use only the smartphone app.

Like Swappa it is very simple to sell your stuff, and the task of posting an item for sale can be done in as little as 30 seconds.

© 2021, 2022 by JDD Publishing Co.

What's nice is that you can sell items locally if you want, or anywhere, because you can ship items to your buyers. That expands your reach if you are willing to do a little extra work with packing and shipping.

I've literally sold over a thousand dollars worth of stuff on OfferUp and most stuff sells within days of listing. I sold a snow plow, some shelving, a used mattress, a used hot water heater, work out equipment and even an old trampoline!

I'll bet if you took a quick tour around your home, shed, basement, closets, garage, etc., you would find a lot things to list.

Just bring your smartphone along with you. Keep the app open snap a picture of everything you want ot get rid of. Add a price, and your item will go live instantly!

It's fun, easy and believe me, quite profitable!

© 2021, 2022 by JDD Publishing Co.

Poshmark

This one is similar to Swappa and OfferUp but specializes in clothing.

Ask the average person (especially women) what percentage of clothing they own, do they actually wear. Most people will say 10-20%. The rest sits in their closet or bureau drawer collecting dust. Some of it is even like new.

Why not turn some of that clothing into cold hard cash? That's where Poshmark comes in. Poshmark is a place to sell (and buy) high-end fashion items including designer clothes and brand-name shoes.

© 2021, 2022 by JDD Publishing Co.

Selling clothing with Poshmark is far simpler than using ebay or amazon. You can use the website or you can sell right from your smartphone.

Used designer clothing is worth a lot, and there is no shortage of women who would rather not pay retail price. After all, if they can get clothes or accessories that are still in good condition for half off or more, most jump at the chance.

Keep in mind when using Poshmark that it attracts a specific type of customer:

1. Fashionable women who are budget-minded clothing enthusiasts
2. People who own lots of designer brands

Even if you're not a big fashion enthusiast, Poshmark may be a good way for you to make some extra money. Remember, in addition to your own closet, you can find great products to sell on Poshmark by going to yard sales, estate sales and even thrift shops. You may be surprised at how little you can pay for designer clothes that are lightly used.

The best way to get started with Poshmark is to visit their site or better yet, download the app onto your smartphone. Then sign in and start browsing. Check out top sellers and familiarize yourself with what sells for the most. Then get busy listing the clothes you want to sell, and start shopping for more locally that are in high demand!

© 2021, 2022 by JDD Publishing Co.

Mercari

Mercari originally started in Japan when there was no place to sell their used goods easily online. It is now becoming increasingly popular in the US and the U.K., with billions of items being sold every month.

Mercari called themselves an online “flea market app” and let users sell whatever they wanted. Their motto is Sell it, Ship It, Get Paid. That's because with Mercari, buying and selling from your smartphone is so simple.

Keep in mind when using Mercari that it attracts a specific type of customer:

© 2021, 2022 by JDD Publishing Co.

1. People looking for a deal
2. People trying to get rid of extra stuff
3. Collectors

You can sell clothing on Mercari, too. But stick to Poshmark for designer clothes. However if you have stuff like baby clothes or sports apparel to sell, then Mercari is a better choice.

Another great thing about Mercari, is that items can be bought and sold in less-than-mint condition. Again, think flea market. Just make sure that you’re honest about the item’s condition so you won't get bad feedback.

The best way to get started with Mercari is to download the app onto your smartphone.

© 2021, 2022 by JDD Publishing Co.

Peddle.com

OK, this one that not everyone can use, but it can be a big money maker if you can.

If you live in a rural area like I do, you know that it is very common to see old, broken down cars in people's yards. In fact, there are literally millions of people who let old cars rot in their yard. That's a fact, even though 80% of most vehicles can be recycled, and there are companies who will pay good money for that material.

But you need to go to the right place. I had an old SUV I needed to get rid of last year. I called around to some junkyards and a few offered to come get it for $50 or $100. One even offered me $250 which I almost accepted. Then I did some research online.

I found peddle.com and entered my vehicle's info into the website. They offered me so much I thought it was a scam. But more research told me it was the real deal. I accepted the offer and a week later they came and towed it away and handed me a check for $1572.

If you have any disabled vehicles sitting around, this is an easy, profitable solution. You could even help others get rid of their old junkers for a small commission. ;-)

Action Plan...

OK, now you have five places where you can sell stuff you either already own, or stuff you buy exclusively to sell at profit.

Why not try out these resources on your computer or smartphone right now. Open each website or app and poke around. Then pick one or two to work with regularly.

Add a few items for sale and see what happens.

As I mentioned, I've made lots of money selling things I no longer need and you can too. Thanks to today's technology, it's fast, easy and fun!

Hourly Pay Remote Work

If you prefer more structured pay where you earn money for each hour you work, there are plenty of opportunities for that online.

Most pay in the neighborhood of $15 an hour. The drawback of course is that you're basically trading your time for money, buy many people prefer the steady income and don't mind that arrangement.

If you're one of those folks, then you need to be careful to avoid the myriad of scams and fake opportunities. I can help you with that. In this section you'll find some of the best reputable ways to earn an hourly wage online...

Amazon Remote Customer Service

Many people around the world now work from home for Amazon customer support.

Amazon even provides the computer for their remote customer service workers. They'll send you a large chromebook monitor with a small drive built in the back and they'll even insure the equipment at your home address.

There's no experience needed, as long as you can talk, you may be able to get hired and you'll be fully trained by them.

Amazon has recently decided to pay all their workers a minimum of $15 an hour, so you can expect to start at that pay. They also offer plenty of overtime, and may even pay for you to go to college.

All you need is a dedicated work station and decent internet speeds of 10mps download and 5 upload minimum to be eligible for this opportunity.

Oh, and for security purposes, you can’t use WiFi, you need to plug into your router with an Ethernet cable. And they want your work-space to be in a dedicated room with a door.

If an Amazon Remote Customer Service position interests you, take a daily visit to Amazon's regularly updated job postings for availability.

LiveOps

LiveOps is a highly respected outfit that hires customer service agents who want to work from home.

As a LiveOps agent, you provide services as your schedule permits, in blocks of time as small as 30 minutes. You also get to choose times that work best for your schedule.

Most of their agents get a straight talk-time rate of 25 cents per minute, (that's $15/hr.) and some work on a base rate plus commission bonuses. Some of their other programs pay entirely on commission.

As an independent agent for LiveOps, you are paid after submitting regular invoices for their services, using their easy-to-use web-based system.

They pay you by either check or direct deposit, whichever you prefer, twice a month. There are also opportunities for sales incentives which can significantly increase your revenue – so the better service you provide, the greater your revenue potential!

If you're someone who likes working directly with people and helping them solve problems, this may be a perfect company for you to join.

For more information on working for LiveOps, visit their website here.

© 2021, 2022 by JDD Publishing Co.

Sykes

Sykes is another great outfit for people who want to do customer support from home.

Founded in 1977 and based in Tampa, Florida, Sykes has over 10,000 employees. They love to hire people who work from home and always have many positions available to fill.

Working for Sykes gives you the chance to help people by answering a question, solving a problem, or finding something they need.

Serving clients in many different industries, call reps at Sykes are always in high demand, and many positions require no experience.

© 2021, 2022 by JDD Publishing Co.

To find out more about working at home for Sykes, visit their website here.

Action Plan...

OK, now you have three places where you can earn a nice hourly pay doing customer support from home.

Why not check out these resources on your computer right now. Open each website and see which one interests you most.

If working remotely really interests you, I also suggest you join a few Facebook groups on the topic. That way you can read what other remote workers are talking about, learn more about this type of work and learn of open positions with other respectable companies.

This Remote Customer Service Jobs Facebook Group is one you can join for free where you'll find lots of advice and regular job postings...

© 2021, 2022 by JDD Publishing Co.

And here's one more Legit Home Jobs Facebook Group you should join called the 1099 Contract Job Group...

While most home based customer service positions do offer flexible hours, remember that it's more like showing up to work at a call center, but in your own home.

That means you need to clock in your start time, work, track your hours, and so forth.

If that's too structured for you then you may want to check out the next section. In it you'll find another way to work from home and earn easy money...

Microtasking

If hourly pay is not your thing, microtasking is another way you can earn money from the comfort of your own home, any time of day or night.

Microtasks are quite simply, quick odd jobs that you can do and get paid. Some take 2-3 minutes and may pay fifty cents or so. Others take a couple hours and pay as much as $50.

These microtasks are simply things that human beings can do much more effectively than computers. So companies pay for actual humans to do the tasks.

That's where you come in.

Examples of microtasks you can do to earn money include transcribing audio recordings, researching data, and even things as simple as identifying objects.

Rather than hiring a large temporary workforce or leaving tasks like these incomplete, lots of companies outsource the work to a few large microtasking sites.

In this section you'll find three such places where you can sign up to complete microtasks and earn fast money.

© 2021, 2022 by JDD Publishing Co.

Amazon Mechanical Turk

Amazon Mechanical Turk (MTurk) is a marketplace for work that requires human intelligence.

Mturk, as many people call it, is a service that gives businesses access to a diverse, on-demand workforce.

Workers can select from thousands of tasks to complete whenever it's convenient for them to do so. Mturk calls these tasks HITS, which is short for Human Intelligence Task.

A HIT is basically a question that needs an answer. It represents a single, task that a worker can complete such as submitting an answer. They can then collect a reward for completing the task.

Below are a couple of screenshots from Mturk that I took as I was writing this guide.

The first one shows some example of some of the higher paying tasks on Mturk, and the second screenshot shows some lower priced hits.

As you can see from the two screenshots, the pay for HITS ranges greatly, with opportunities to earn as much as $58 and as little as a few dollars and less (just pennies in some cases) for faster tasks.

© 2021, 2022 by JDD Publishing Co.

Mturk is a great choice for some quick cash, and thousands of people perform HITS daily. It's a stable platform that has been operating for more than a decade now, so it's reputable and reliable.

You can sign up here. It takes about 48 hours to get approved. During that time, they verify your social security number (for tax purposes).

Once verified, you start out in a probation period where you need to complete at least 1 HIT for 10 days.

© 2021, 2022 by JDD Publishing Co.

Appen

Appen is a global leader in the development of high-quality, human annotated datasets for machine learning and artificial intelligence.

Or to put it more simply, they hire real humans to rate and evaluate things such as search results, social media material and more.

Applicants must be self-motivated and internet savvy. The work is flexible, part-time, and home-based work that requires a computer and/or mobile device.

Some of the work includes what they call “micro tasks” which are simple tasks that can be completed in about an hour from the comfort of your own home. There are also projects that take up to 20 hours a week.

You do need to qualify for their projects and the qualification processes is not paid, but it does not typically take long. But if you want to qualify you'll need to study the guidelines for an hour or so then take a test for each selected project.

If you pass, you can then start work on the project. If you do not pass, then they move you onto the next qualification.

To see what is currently available from Appen, click to their Find a Job Page.

ClickWorker

ClickWorker is another site where you can get paid to complete simple tasks. It is similar to Mturk and Appen, and like the other two prlatforms, you can sign up as a Clickworker free of charge.

Clickworker is always looking for Internet users worldwide, Their micro tasks include proofreading written texts, participating in surveys, and things such as searching for data.

Again, you are not paid by the hour, you are paid for each completed task you perform. You work independently based on your own schedule, so it is flexible. You decide when and how much you want to work – on a freelance basis.

All you need is a computer and/or mobile device with an Internet connection and there's no experience or qualifications necessary.

You receive payment once you've earned $10 and your balance never expires. They pay by paypal so you need to be in a country where you can get a paypal account.

To get started with ClickWorker simply visit them at: https://www.clickworker.com/clickworker/

Action Plan:

OK, now you have some great ways to earn easy money with simple microtasks.

Why not check out each one of these microtasking platforms on your computer right now. Open each website and sign up. Then stick with the one or two you like best and earn regular pay!

Mystery Shopping

Did you know that there are companies that will pay you to shop?

It's true!

You may have heard of this in the past and even dismissed it as a scam. And unfortunately, there are lots of scams in the industry. Those are the companies that try to get you to pay a fee up front. The real mystery shopping opportunities are actually 100% free.

And they are legit! You can earn anywhere from $5-$25 per mystery shop, plus reimbursement for any purchases required.

Some mystery shoppers earn thousands of dollars a month, though a good expectation is somewhere around $400-$500 a month. But hey, you're shopping, and for many people that's a fun way to earn part-time cash!

© 2021, 2022 by JDD Publishing Co.

Here's how it works:

You sign up at a mystery shopping company (see the recommended companies in this section) and they pay you to act as a regular customer at stores in your area, and to provide feedback on your shopping experience.

You may be asked to visit a local grocery store, a fast-food restaurant, a liquor store, etc. Other tasks I've seen include shopping for a car (including a test drive!) or visiting your local YMCA as a prospective customer.

In exchange for your feedback, (store cleanliness, employee helpfulness, etc.) you are paid a fee. In most cases you'll be asked to make a purchase, then you'll be reimbursed up to a set dollar amount.

Once you sign up and are approved you simply log into a website and choose jobs that interest you. You are provided with all the details on exactly what is expected with each job. After completion you then log back in and enter your feedback into their website.

If this sounds like something you may be interested in trying, then check out the following trusted mystery shopping companies. They are all free to join and have very good reputations...

© 2021, 2022 by JDD Publishing Co.

BestMark

BestMark is a leader in the mystery shopping space and serves many Fortune 500 companies including restaurants, casinos, stores, hotels and banks.

You'll earn income while helping companies improve their customer service, simply by shopping and providing feedback on your experience.

BestMark works in more than a dozen industries and hands out over 10,000 mystery shopping assignments every month!

Action Plan...

If mystery shopping interests you, visit those companies listed above and apply. It usually takes a few days for your application to be accepted, then you can start shopping and earning!

As far as getting paid, some companies pay by direct deposit and others mail you checks.

Again, legitimate mystery shopping companies always need shoppers, so they never ask for you to pay to see a list of their jobs. So never pay to be a part of a mystery shopping company or to see their jobs.

While you're waiting for your applications to be approved, get a free account at this quite active and informative forum for Mystery Shoppers and get to know the playing field a little...

A Closing Challenge...

I hope you've enjoyed this guide and found some useful resources.

Now I'd like to end this ebook with a challenge.

I've tried practically every way there is to make money online. And I haven't needed a job since 1996.

I've done info-product sales, affiliate marketing, adsense, amazon, ebay, you name it. That's no accident. It's because generating a steady income from home is like building a puzzle.

You never rely on one single strategy. You just keep putting pieces together and watch the picture come into focus.

So no matter what you are doing now, why not add a few new pieces to your puzzle.

The methods you just discovered in this ebook are the fastest and easiest methods that just about anyone can use. They are perfect for generating income in your spare-time.

You don't need a website to use these methods, You don't need a product of your own. You don't need an email list. Heck, you don't even need to start a business, you can just earn some easy cash on the side.

So here is my challenge to you...

Every day for the next 15 days, connect to ONE of these methods. Download an app and try it out. Visit a website and sign up.

At the end of the two weeks you'll be using your computer and your smartphone in ways you never imagined.

If you turn even a small percentage of your spare time into money-making activities like these on a regular basis, you may just turn your financial situation around!

Time's wasting. You could be earning already. Why not take a leap of faith and join countless others who use these proven methods...
